Reclamation Labourer

Duz Cho is looking for a team of reclamation labourers to join our team this summer. If you like working outdoors and enjoying nature while earning a wage, please send your resume. We are hiring up to 24 individuals to join us this summer.

Employees are expected to support and participate in a “culture of safety”, adhere to and be ambassadors of Duz Cho’s Code of Conduct and Values, act professional and amicable, and to treat others with dignity, respect, and fairness.

Duz Cho is a 100% Indigenous owned company, with ownership belonging to Mcleod Lake Indian Band. The successful candidate will have a deep understanding of the diverse cultures and histories of local Indigenous communities. They must have demonstrated experience in applying Indigenous knowledge in a professional setting, adhering to cultural protocols, and working with a culturally safe approach. Knowledge of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada (TRC) Calls to Action and a commitment to advancing reconciliation are essential.

This will be a physically intense role, and all applicants must be able to pass a physical fitness / Drug and Alcohol test before being hired.
